1. Connections:

Connect Component Video cables and Stereo Audio cables between your sources and the AT-CV41R. You also can connect SPDIF (Digital Audio) cable, if it is applicable to your devices. When connecting Video cables, please make sure that color coding is precisely matched. Failing to do so may result a distorted image or blank screen.

Plug the supplied AC/DC adapter into the power socket and the other end into the switcher.

2. IR Learning Mode.

Step 2: The CH1 LED Indicator will flash. At the same time beam your IR Remote Controller to the IR receiving window of the AT-CV41R and press any key for selecting Channel 1, say number 1, CH 1 LED will be off. The AT-CV41R will store the corresponding code as the command to change the input to CH1.
